SENTINEL 1955

PRESENTED BY THE SENIOR CLASS
LAWRENCEVILLE HIGH SCHOOL
Lawrenceville, Virginia

Robert J. Jones

1906

It is always sad to mark the passing of a good and so it is with deep regret that we, the class of 1955, write these words. For almost half a century the Lawrenceville High School has been the hub of the educational, athletic, and entertainment circles of the community. From its halls have gone forth thousands of alumni who, we believe, whether achieving material success or mediocrity, happiness or tragedy, have found imbedded deep within their hearts the principles for which the school stands -- attributes for fuller living, spiritual, mental, and physical.

For twenty-five years, for more than half its life, with innate gentlemanliness, keen intelligence, ready wit, and patient understanding, an alumnus, our principal, has maintained the standards of the school.

The Senior Class with grateful appreciation and loving respect dedicate their volume of the Sentinel to their Alma Mater, the Lawrenceville High School and to their friend, Robert Jefferson Jones.

Mr. B. [unclear] lton
Superintendent

Mr. R. Jefferson Jones
Principal

In this Sentinel is the story of one of our happy years spent at L.H.S. As you slowly turn through this book, many cherished memories of ball games, club activities, class parties, Junior-Senior Proms and other activities will be recalled. May we always remember these things, and especially our teachers who have so patiently stood beside us everyday of the year. We appreciate their efforts very much.

We, the staff, present this book to you in hopes that it will bring much joy to you in years to come.

Charles Linwood Browder, Jr.- Pep Club 1, 2; F.F.A. 2, 3; Baseball 1; D.O. 4. A Little shy; a sparkle in his eye, and a smile that makes one glad to know him.

James Vinton Clarke, Jr.- Hi-Y 3, 4 President; F.F.A. 2, 3 Reporter; D.O. 4 Reporter; Band 3, 4; Annual Staff. A lad with a friendly hello for the boys, a flirting smile for the girls, and dependable work for the teachers.

Sylvia Jean Clarke- Library Club 1; Pep Club 1,2,3; Sophomore class Secretary; Class Treasurer 3,4; Beta Club 3 Vice President, 4; Tri-Hi-Y 3, 4 Reporter; Bow-Wow Staff; Senior Play Cast. As many girls do, Sylvia likes the boys, but she is clever and they do not divert her attention enough to detract from her outstanding work in curricula and extra-curricula activities.

Eugene Alvin Clary-, F.F.A. 2,3,4; Hi-Y 4. Red-haired "Gene" doesn't exert much energy, but he has ability in spelling, drawing, and athletics.

Shirley Daris Clary- Spanish 3, 4; Basketball 3, 4; Library Club 1, 2; Pep Club 1, 2, 3; F.H.A. 2, 3, 4; Bow-Wow Staff; Senior Play Cast. It is, hard to believe so much fun and work could come from our little Shirley.

radeship attracts the boys; vim and ability on gridiron, court and diamond attract the sport lovers--to Tommy Gayle.

Miles Clifton Conner-F.F.A. 1,2,3,4 Treasurer.

Miles is a likeable guy-quiet and co-ball 1,2,3,4; Football 2,3,4; Baseball

1,2,3,4; Monogram Club 3,4; Senior Play Cast; Pep Club 1.

Lanky figure, quiet fun, low drawl,
wit and humor create an individuality
that can't be duplicated -- It's Aubrey,
"As good-natured a soul as e'er trod on shoe of leather."

SENIORS

Nancy Ann Elliott - Pep Club 1,2,3; Basketball; Band 3,4; F.H.A. 2,3. It is said things always go in threes -- we know two loves of Nancy's -- softball and band. Could her third love be "boys"?

A mischievous glance and a teasing air are Freddie's ways of attracting the young ladies of L.H.S.

Martha Annalee Hammack - F.H.A. 2, 3; Art Club 4.

That ready smile means a warm friendliness, although her very quiet ways often conceal it.

was his need."

Ruby Joyce Kidd - Library Club 1; F.

Library Club 2,3,4; D.O. 4; F.H.A. 2,

Here is a neat dresser who can sew a fine seam. Love for good times and sports are Amelia's, too.

Lawrence Osburn Lewis - D.O. 3,4.
Lawrence's love is not found within the school, not within any walls -- it is for the out-of-doors and the pleasure he finds in hunting.

Marion Lou Lockerman - Library Club
1,3; F.H.A. 2; D.O. 4.

An ever-ready congeniality brings many friends to Marian.

in appearance, an "Eddie Fisher" voice, co-ordination and grace on gridiron, court and Diamond in pool and on ballroom floor.

OUR HISTORY

Was it really four years ago? It seems only yesterday that we entered the eighth grade. We were, shall we say, foreign to the ways of high school, but we were dazed with the thought of at last really being high school students. Although we were greenhorns during our Freshman year, we had our share of activities—most memorable are the spring party and the visit to the General Assembly. We also boasted of having so many of our boys participating in athletics.

When our Sophomore year rolled around, we had been initiated truly into the ways of high school. We struggled through ancient history, Latin verbs, and algebra equations.

During our Junior year we got into the Swing of things in many ways. We held offices in various school clubs, had trophy winners, and generally prepared ourselves for the position we would hold the following year. The musical strains of Moonlight and Roses will always revive memories of our Junior-Senior Prom—the fun we had pasting stars in the sky, twining roses and ivy in the picket fence, and presenting our own This is Your Life show. Also, for the first time L.H.S. had a band of which the class was very proud since we contributed a number of members.

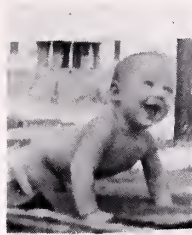

Now at last . . . the arrival of a momentous phase in our lives, this our Senior year of 1954-55. It seemed strange to us but we demanded seniority, and we received it. We knew we had reached a milestone when we began publishing the Bow-Wow, spending endless yet pleasant hours, working on the Sentinel, and producing Beauty and the Beef in which we certainly strutted our stuff. We outdid ourselves on the field, the court, and the diamond, where we not only learned to play ball; we also learned much about playing the game of life.

During four years we have captured an overflowing reservoir of happy memoirs, which will bring us many moments of pleasure in the years to come. With our faces to the future we should keep in mind these frequently quoted lines from Shakespeare's As You Like It. All the world's a stage, and all the men and women merely players. They have their exits and their entrances; and one man in his time plays many parts. The world challenges us to play our part well.
